

The International Business Innovation Association (InBIA): Rural Entrepreneurship Centers

InBIA History

- Established in 1985 as the National Business Incubation Association
- Based in Athens, Ohio, for more than two decades
- Change in location and shift in scope in 2016

InBIA Mission

InBIA's mission is to help communities enable their entrepreneurs to transform their dreams into innovative businesses that make global prosperity a reality

InBIA Services

- Communities of Practice – peer connection platform
- Research and Advocacy
- Convenings - three events per year
- Professional Development - industry-specific trainings and credentials

InBIA Free Resources

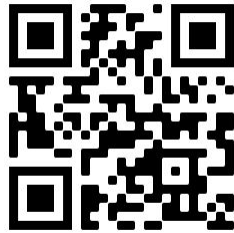

- Playbooks:
<https://inbia.org/jpmorgan-chase-co-and-inbia-playbooks/>
 - Diversity and inclusion
 - Neighborhood place-based centers
 - Elevating women
- Monthly webinars: <https://inbia.org/webinars/>
- Impact report: <https://impactindex.inbia.org/ecdata/>

InBIA Opportunities

- Membership - <https://inbia.org/services/memberships/>
- Trainings - <https://inbia.org/training-and-education/>
 - Entrepreneurship Center Management (ECM) certificate program
 - University centers course
 - Mentor network certification
- Events - <https://inbia.org/inbia-events/>
 - Fall ecosystem builders event
 - Winter leadership summit
 - Spring conference

Stay in Touch!

- Sign up for our newsletter:

- Get more information: inbia.org
- Contact me directly:
Lindsay Schuenke, Director of Content
Ischuenke@inbia.org

Thank you!

IN
BIA